

Media Partners

Wednesday, 27 May 2009

The Ocean Energy Council is currently working with:

Hybrid Media Group is an all Green ad agency offering top-notch creative services, strong media purchase power, and high ROI to its clients. Hybrid is also a recognized matchmaker between top brands for co-branding opportunities and has a philanthropic approach by matching its clients with charity causes while the donation comes from Hybrid's end. Hybrid Media Group's mission is to deliver superior, cost-effective marketing and advertising solutions while promoting a better business environment and making a difference while doing it.